2023 Lent Study Book – Anglican Board of Mission

Seven studies that, from Ash Wednesday to Holy Week, take us into the lives of seven of the people Jesus brought to wholeness. Seven stories that bring scripture alive and help us to understand that Jesus was dealing with real people, rather than generic characters. Hear anew the stories of Legion, the haemorrhaging woman, Lazarus and Martha, the woman accused of adultery, Zacchaeus, the paralysed man let down through the roof – and that post-resurrection BBQ breakfast on the beach. Story-based studies that will touch your heart, build your faith, and encourage you on the missional journey. All genuine mission is incarnational and relationally based. As the studies suggest, "If our mission is all about purpose rather than relationship, we miss the point."

Written by ABM Education Missioner, Stephen Daughtry, with art by Vanessa Daughtry, this will be another beautiful and challenging dive into God's love.

Bp Bill Ray's 2023 Lent Book – Ecumenical Study

This series of Lenten studies will lead participants in a journey through the Year 'A' Readings. Many of us have made New Years resolutions, but their life span didn't last the whole year. However, Lent is only six weeks and it my prayer that you and I will be able to be "hang in there" for this liturgical season. In other words be serious about this Lent.

GOSPEL READING - Matthew 17:1-9

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew, chapter 17, beginning at the 1st verse

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

¹ Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. ² And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white.

³ Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. ⁴ Then Peter said to Jesus, 'Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.' ⁵ While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!' ⁶ When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. ⁷ But Jesus came and touched them, saying, 'Get up and do not be afraid.' ⁸ And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

⁹ As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, 'Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.'

FIRST READING

A reading from Exodus 24:12-18

¹² The Lord said to Moses, 'Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.' ¹³ So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. ¹⁴ To the elders he had said, 'Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them.'

¹⁵ Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. ¹⁶ The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. ¹⁷ Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. ¹⁸ Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

and why do the peoples cherish a vain dream?

² The kings of the earth rise up and the rulers conspire together:

against the Lord and against his anointed, saying,

³ 'Let us break their bonds asunder:

let us throw off their chains from us.'

⁴ He that dwells in heaven shall laugh them to scorn:

the Lord will hold them in derision.

⁵ Then will he speak to them in his wrath,
and terrify them in his fury:

'I, the Lord, have set up my king on Zion my holy hill.'

⁶ I will announce the Lord's decree,
that which he has spoken:

'You are my son, this day have I begotten you.

⁷ 'Ask of me,

and I will give you the nations for your inheritance:

the uttermost parts of the earth for your possession.

⁸ 'You may break them with a rod of iron:

and shatter them in pieces like a potter's vessel.'

⁹ Now therefore be wise, O kings:

be advised, you that are judges of the earth.

¹⁰ Serve the Lord with awe,

and govern yourselves in fear and trembling:

lest he be angry, and you perish in your course.

¹¹ For his wrath is quickly kindled:

blessed are those that turn to him for refuge.

SECOND READING

A reading from 2 Peter 1:16-21

¹⁶ For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. ¹⁷ For he received honour and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, 'This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'

¹⁸ We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain. ¹⁹ So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. ²⁰ First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, ²¹ because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.
