Sentence of the Day

At the name of Jesus, every knee shall bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Philippians 2.10-11

Collect

Everlasting God, in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son to take our nature, and to suffer death upon the cross: in your mercy enable us to share in his obedience to your will and in the glorious victory of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Kids Plus+

KidsPlus+ is held on the 4th Sunday of the month, during the 9.15 service. All children are welcome to be involved in the service and after communion join in with games and craft and morning tea together.

Morning Tea

Please join us for Morning Tea following both services .

SAVE THE DATE

St Mark's Fete will be held on Saturday 27 May.

Please keep this date free to help on the roster and to encourage friends to come along and enjoy the day.

More information coming soon.

Research and discussions are progressing with regards to trees on our Church property. There is a fig strangling a pine, which also seems to be split. The poinciana is also under continuing conversations with relevant bodies. An arborist will be engaged very soon.

FIRST READING

not read during today's service

A reading from Isaiah 50:4-9a

⁴ The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens— wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.

⁵ The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backwards. ⁶ I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

⁷ The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; ⁸ he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. ⁹ It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty? All of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

Holy Week

Search for St Mark's Anglican Church Clayfield— Like our page, watch the Sunday sermons at your leisure!

⁹ Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble:

my eye wastes away for grief,
my throat also and my inward parts.

¹⁰ For my life wears out in sorrow,
and my years with sighing:

my strength fails me in my affliction,
and my bones are consumed.

¹¹ I am become the scorn of all my enemies:
and my neighbours wag their heads in derision.

¹² I am a thing of horror to my friends:
and those that see me in the street shrink from me.

¹³ I am forgotten like one dead and out of mind:
I have become like a broken vessel.

¹⁴ For I hear the whispering of many:
and fear is on every side;

¹⁵ While they plot together against me:
and scheme to take away my life.

¹⁶ But in you, Lord, have I put my trust:
I have said 'You are my God.'

¹⁷ All my days are in your hand:
O deliver me from the power of my enemies
and from my persecutors.

¹⁸ Make your face to shine upon your servant:
and save me for your mercy's sake.

GOSPEL READING - Matthew 21: 1-11

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew, chapter 21, beginning at the 1st verse

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

When they had come near Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, ² saying to them, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me. ³ If anyone says anything to you, just say this, "The Lord needs them." And he will send them immediately.^[a] ⁴ This took place to fulfil what had been spoken through the prophet, saying,

⁵ 'Tell the daughter of Zion, Look, your king is coming to you, humble, and mounted on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'

⁶ The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them; ⁷ they brought the donkey and the colt, and put their cloaks on them, and he sat on them. ⁸ A very large crowd^[b] spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. ⁹ The crowds that went ahead of him and that followed were shouting, 'Hosanna to the Son of David!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!

Backpacks for Foster Care Emergencies

Thank you so much for your support of the outreach for supporting children of all ages who are taken into emergency foster care. Your monetary donations are converted into filled backpacks that are age appropriate.

Each pack we create needs $45-50 and so far we have raised:

$1519

which included $200 from Margaret Moxon's jam fund. This is marvellous, but more donations are needed to meet our target of over 30 packs. Envelopes are available.

SECOND READING

A reading from Philippians 2:5-11

⁵ Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, ⁶ who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, ⁷ but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, ⁸ he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death— even death on a cross.

⁹ Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, ¹⁰ so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, ¹¹ and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
