Sentence of the Day

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us; therefore let us keep the feast. The Lord is risen indeed, alleluia!
1 Corinthians 5.7–8

Collect

Risen Lord Jesus, as Mary Magdalene met you in the garden on the morning of your resurrection, so may we meet you today and every day:
Speak to us as you spoke to her; reveal yourself as the living Lord; renew our hope and kindle our joy; and send us to share the Good News with others. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from Acts 10:34-43

³⁴ Then Peter began to speak: 'I now realise how true it is that God does not show favouritism ³⁵ but accepts from every nation the one who fears him and does what is right. ³⁶ You know the message God sent to the people of Israel, announcing the good news of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all. ³⁷ You know what has happened throughout the province of Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached — ³⁸ how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power, and how he went around doing good and healing all who were under the power of the devil, because God was with him.

³⁹ 'We are witnesses of everything he did in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They killed him by hanging him on a cross, ⁴⁰ but God raised him from the dead on the third day and caused him to be seen. ⁴¹ He was not seen by all the people, but by witnesses whom God had already chosen — by us who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. ⁴² He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one whom God appointed as judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³ All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

PSALM Hymn to the Risen Christ

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us:
so let us celebrate the feast,
Not with the old leaven of corruption and wickedness:
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
Christ once raised from the dead dies no more:
death has no more dominion over him.
In dying he died to sin once for all:
in living he lives to God.
See yourselves therefore as dead to sin:
and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.
Christ has been raised from the dead:
the firstfruits of those who sleep.
For as by one man came death:
by another has come also resurrection of the dead;
For as in Adam all die:
even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

Backpacks for Foster Care Emergencies

Thank you so much for your support of the outreach for supporting children of all ages who are taken into emergency foster care. Your monetary donations are converted into filled backpacks that are age appropriate.

Each pack we create needs $45-50 and so far we have raised:

$1954

which included $200 from Margaret Moxon's jam fund. This is marvellous, but more donations are needed to meet our target of over 30 packs. Envelopes are available.

Holy Trinity Community Food Pantry

This week's special requests are:

Men's and women's deodorant
Feminine Hygiene products of all kinds Toothpaste and toothbrushes

Many thanks.

GOSPEL READING - Matthew 28: 1-10

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew, chapter 28, beginning at the 1st verse

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

¹ After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb. ² There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it. ³ His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. ⁴ The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.

⁵ The angel said to the women, 'Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. ⁶ He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. ⁷ Then go quickly and tell his disciples: "He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him." Now I have told you.'

⁸ So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹ Suddenly Jesus met them. 'Greetings,' he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshipped him. ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, 'Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

The Maundy Thursday Agape meal and Service was a beautiful and reflective time, coupled with warm fellowship over a meal. Thank you to all who contributed of themselves and culinary fare.

On Good Friday the church and grounds were open to all for private prayer and reflection using a range of Prayer Spaces with hands-on and quiet activities.

The Way of the Cross according to Matthew was held at 8am, and the All-Ages prayer stations officially began at 10am, however many stayed to experience them after the first service.

SECOND READING

A reading from Colossians 3:1-4

¹ Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. ² Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. ³ For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. ⁴ When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.
