Some Bits of Parish News

- ⇒ An application is in place for tall pine tree removal as it has split AND is currently hugged by a stranger fig (Bonney Ave south corner). This will cost a few thousand to remove.
- ⇒ The poinciana on the corner is causing a little concern with dropping quite weighty branches onto the pedestrian footpath
- ⇒ Two front pews are being fixed and altered slightly to allow them to be placed in the upper sanctuary.
- ⇒ The kitchen is acquiring a new Zip boiler (approx. $2000) as the last one is deceased
- ⇒ We have purchased a new noticeboard ($700)
- ⇒ Containers for Change brings us around $80 each month
- ⇒ Recent electricity bill for the church/hall was over $700 for 3 months
- ⇒ Unfortunately, under the hall we have 41 concrete stumps in need of replacement. This will cost at least $14,000.

Sentence of the Day

Suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, 'This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him!' Matthew 17.5

Collect

O God, in the transfiguration of your Son you confirmed the mysteries of the faith by the witness of Moses and Elijah, and in the voice from the cloud you foreshadowed our adoption as your children: make us, with Christ, heirs of your glory, and bring us to enjoy its fullness; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

Working Bee

The next working bee will be held on Saturday 19 August commencing at 8.00am. All Welcome prayer is less about asking God to do something, than it is about expressing our heart to God and opening ourselves to God's will. It's been said that prayer is to the soul what breathing is to the body. The most basic act of prayer is expressed in two words: Thank you. When we're struggling with guilt or shame, our prayer is, Forgive me. When we're hurting or afraid, it is Help me. Daily we might offer our lives to God praying, Use me.

GOSPEL READING - Mark 9: 2-10

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark, chapter 9, beginning at the 2nd verse

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

² Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, ³and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. ⁴And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. ⁵Then Peter said to Jesus, 'Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.' ⁶He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. ⁷Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!' ⁸Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus.

⁹ As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. ¹⁰ So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what this rising from the dead could mean.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

FIRST READING Daniel 7: 9–10, 13-14

As I watched, thrones were set in place, and an Ancient One took his throne; his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and its wheels were burning fire.¹⁰ A stream of fire issued and flowed out from his presence. A thousand thousand served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him. The court sat in judgement, and the books were opened.

¹³ As I watched in the night visions, I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven. And he came to the Ancient One and was presented before him. ¹⁴ To him was given dominion and glory and kingship, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not pass away, and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed.

PSALM 97

The Lord is king! Let the earth rejoice;

let the many coastlands be glad!

² Clouds and thick darkness are all around him;

righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

³ Fire goes before him,

and consumes his adversaries on every side.

⁴ His lightnings light up the world;

the earth sees and trembles.

⁵ The mountains melt like wax before the Lord,

before the Lord of all the earth.

¹¹ Light dawns^[c] for the righteous,

and joy for the upright in heart.

¹² Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous,

and give thanks to his holy name!

SECOND READING

A reading from 2 Peter 1: 16-19

¹⁶ For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. ¹⁷ For he received honour and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, 'This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.' ¹⁸ We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

¹⁹ So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.
